

Cinder Hill Crag

OS Ref: SD 202921

The main slab is a fair complement to nearby Ribcage, Fox&Yewbarrow Crag.

The two subsidiary routes are included only for the record and it is not recommended that any attempt is made to climb them.

Approach

Approach from parking in the disused quarry at 54.317409 -3.233677

Grades

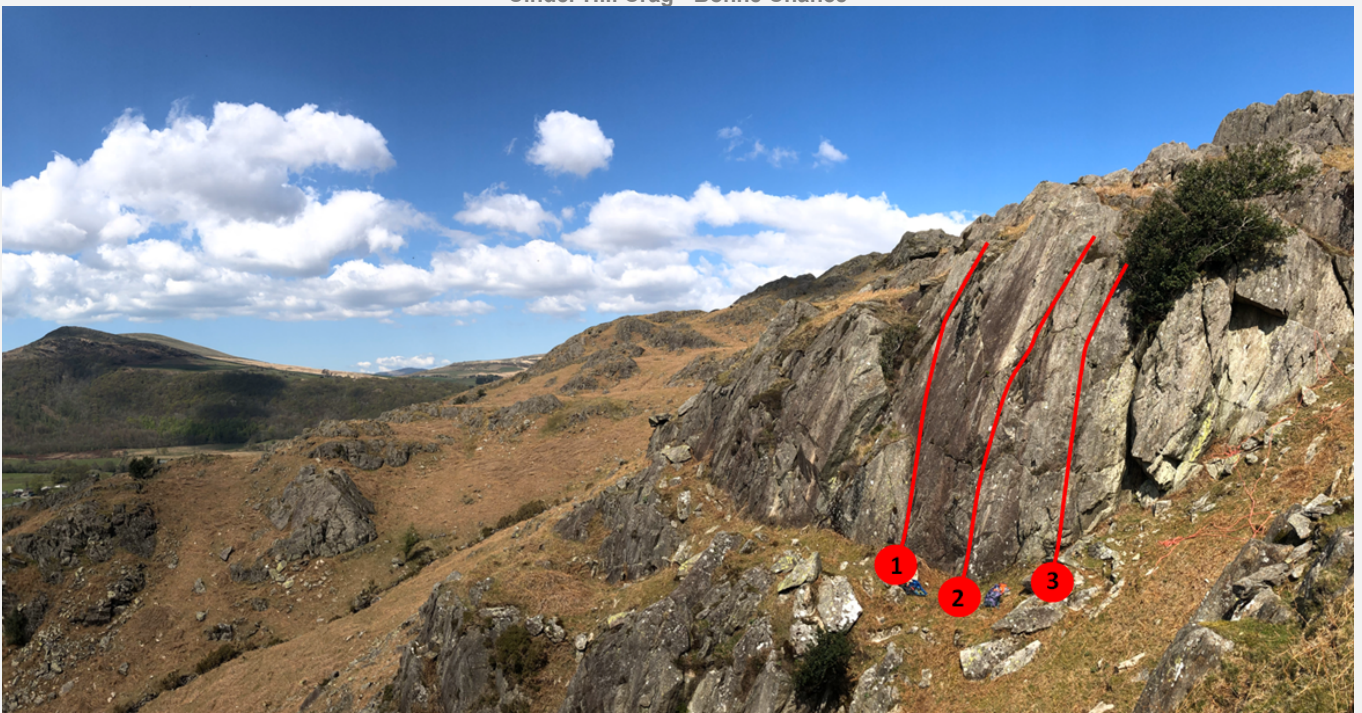

2

2

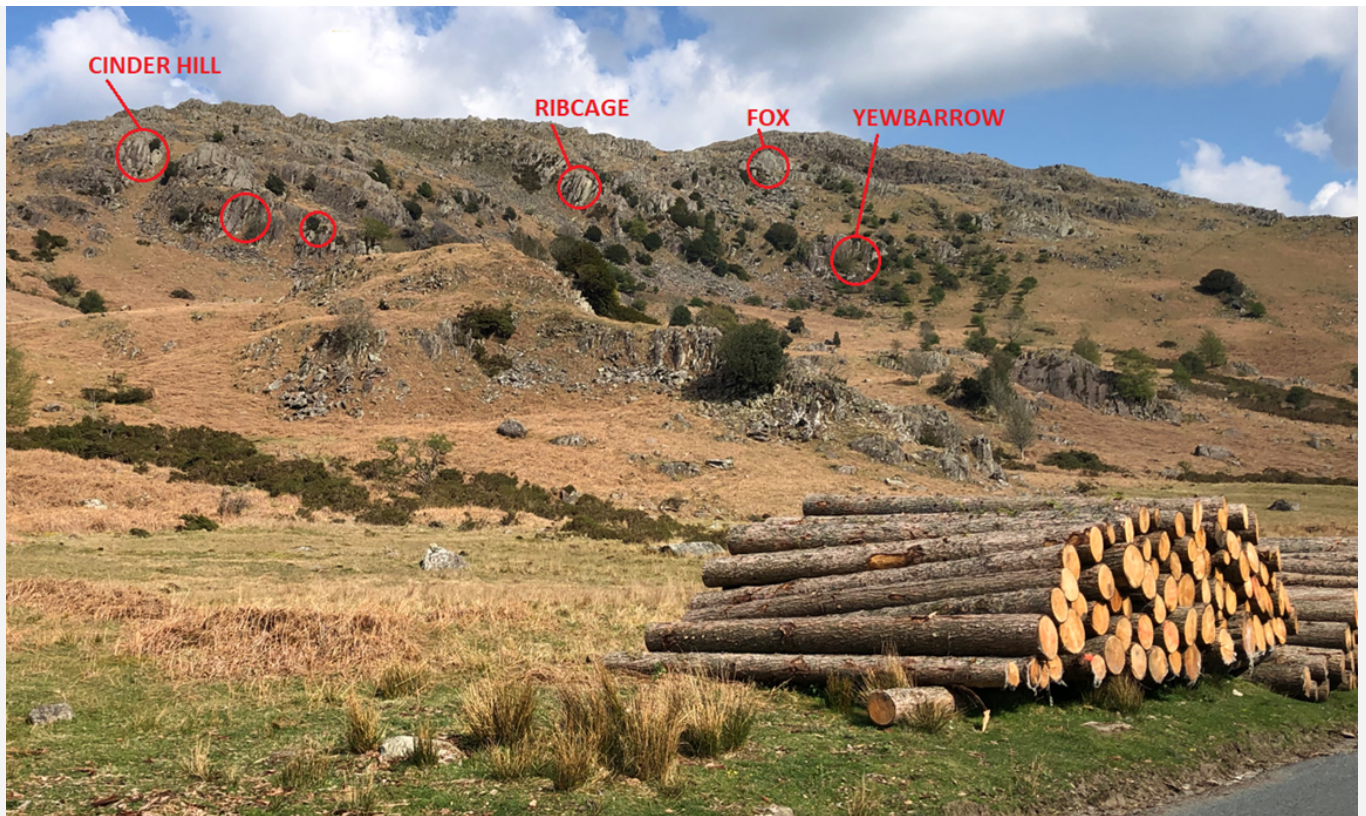

1

Cinder Hill Crag - Bonne Chance

Cinder Hill Crag - Main Slab

Cinder Hill Crag - Yewbarrow Crag

1 Serendipity S † New 9m

Climb the left side of the slab.

23.04.2022 D Scott-Maxwell, A Gittins

2 Happenstance S † New 10m

Climb the centre of the slab via an obvious rightward trending groove.

23.04.2022 D Scott-Maxwell, A Gittins

3 Bonne Chance HVS 4c † New 9m

Climb the steep wall about 2m left of the deep chimney below the holly tree.

23.04.2022 D Scott-Maxwell, A Gittins

4 Bit Short. Bit Loose. Bit Grim. Bit Pointless. E1 5a † New 15m

The line of this route is rather obvious from the road from where it looks attractive. It is not, the name tells all.

29/04/2022 D Scott-Maxwell, A Gittins

5 Nice Little Nose HVS 4c † New 8m

A short little nose with a sapling at its foot. Approach from the right hand side, grab a prominent hold on the arête and you're done. FA: Dave Scott-Maxwell, Andy Gittins, 29/Apr/2022

29.04.2022 D Scott-Maxwell, A Gittins